HAMLIN, JONES COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JULY 14, 1939

NUMBER 37

TOM WILLIAMS MOTOR COMPANY MOVES ACROSS ST.

For many years the T. A. Williams Chevrolet Company has been occupying the King brick garage across the street from the Herald Office, but this week he has relocated his equipment and shop in the Hillier Iron building on the east side of the street. He says it is not as handsome a place for business but it has lots of room and comfort.

Mr. Williams is an automobile dealer of long standing, and besides dealing in new cars he handles standard parts and deals in used cars. He has his old standby, Charlie Branton associated with him, and if you should go to the old stand and miss them you can almost feel the breath of Tom and Charlie across the street bidding you come across and see them in their new place of business.

Mr. Williams is maintaining a well equipped mechanical department and will also handle storage and all kinds of parts.

(G. D. TRIPLETT, Secy. C. of C.)

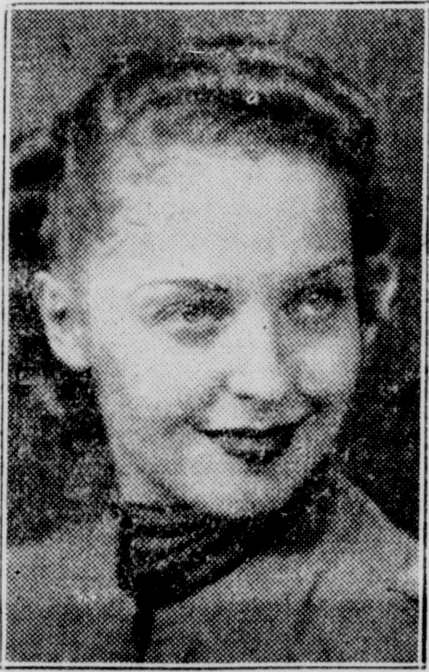

Three Interesting Days

Anson, July 10—Flags, streets, banners and decorations have all been placed to welcome visitors to Anson for the Pioneer Festival, July 14-16. The events start with a Pioneer Day Dinner for the pioneers of the county at noon Friday, July 14, at the High school gymnasium. Harry Hines will be the main speaker on the program. Other events during the day will include an old time street parade at 7 p. m., with a large number of entries having been made.

This is the third annual Festival held in celebration of the birthday of Jones County, July 17, for it was on July 17, 1881 that the first commissioners court was held at Fort Phantom Hill and an election was called on the election of the county seat and Jones City, now Anson, was selected. On January 1, 1882 the sheriff of the county, J. P. Cole, transferred books and records to the new county seat.

The first county officials were elected one month earlier, June 13 and were: E. M. Johnson, county judge; W. H. Smith, county clerk; T. J. Scott, C. L. Chapman, A. Calham and J. J. Elliott as commissioners.

Miss Martha Jane Bryant of Stamford will be crowned Queen of Jones County at 8 p. m. Friday, July 14, at the high school stadium. HAMLIN LAKE PARKS WILL BE IMPROVED

W. Maxter, of Anson, Area Supervisor of the National Youth Administration, announces the approval by Mr. J. C. Kellam, State NYA Administrator, of funds in the amount of $2,320.00 to pay youth labor in carrying on the work of the NYA project at the city parks of Hamlin.

The projects under the supervision of Bill Rountree, city water superintendent, resumed operation on Monday, July 10th, with 15 boys assigned to the project. Other youths will be assigned to the work from time to time.

Project work scheduled for the fiscal year 1939-1940 includes clearing and grubbing 15 acres of park site at Lake Hamlin; grading and surfacing a portion of the roadway leading to the lake; building a number of rock masonry picnic units for the lake park; and building a four foot rock fence around the grounds of the city warehouse and pump station.

Other County Projects

Mr. Baxter further states that approval had been granted for funds for improvement and beautification of certain park areas for the City of Stamford. Also approval of a project for repainting, repairing and improving buildings, grounds and equipment for the Anson City schools had been granted.

Free Hay Along The Highways of County

Here is a good idea for the public: W. A. Haynes, highway maintenance foreman was in Hamlin Wednesday and he says a new ruling has been adopted so as to permit folks to use the cut grass on the right-of-way as it is mown. Heretofore the grass has remained on the ground and in many cases has clogged culverts and made dams. Usually, not even a weed is permitted removed from the highway.

OIL CONTRIBUTES TO THIS SECTION AND TO HAMLIN

14 new oil pools were discovered during 1938, within 50 miles of Hamlin. 10 were in Jones county, 2 in Haskell county and 1 each in Shackelford, Stonewall and Fisher counties.

Jones county produced during 1938, 2,081,036 barrels of oil. Fisher county produced 1,211,892 barrels. Total for the two counties was 3,292,928 barrels, or approximately $3,300,000 worth of oil. Over $3,000,000 was expended in the two counties last year in drilling. An additional $1,375,000 was spent by the industry for bonuses, leases and royalties. This made a total of $4,375,000 spent for development.

Jones county last year produced 37,195 bales of cotton. Fisher county's production was 23,118. Total of the two counties was 60,313 bales. Total receipts from this cotton and cottonseed did not exceed $3,015,650. Government payments to landowners and farmers in the two counties was approximately $907,000. The total of these two items is $4,122,650. The expenditure of the oil industry in this territory was greater than the total received for all cotton, cottonseed and government farm bonuses.

Total of tax values in Jones county increased 13.4 per cent in the last three years. Neighboring counties where there has not been very much oil development, have shown average increases of only .40 per cent.

Retail sales in Jones county have increased 29 per cent in the past four years. In Fisher county the increase was 22 per cent.

The oil business can do more for Hamlin in the future than in the past. However, to do this, it must have our full support and co-operation.

A large majority of the oil operators that have brought this new business to us are officers and directors of the West-Central Texas Oil & Gas Association. They say the best way for us to protect our own interest in the oil business is by supporting the West-Central Texas Oil & Gas Association. The following men, all of whom are heavily interested in oil properties and oil production in our district, urge Hamlin people to support the association. They, along with the other operators, will appreciate your co-operation. They are:

A. J. Frazier, C. K. West, Chas. J. Kleiner, Geo. Callihan, Jas. D. Dunigan, Louis F. Green, T. F. Grisham, J. C. Hunter, Tom Largent, Edward T. Merry, E. W. Moutray, Harold G. Neely, P. W. Pitzer, W. J. Rhodes, Jack B. Roberts, Chas. Roeser, J. D. Sandefer, Jr., W. F. Snebold, E. A. Ungren, H. O. Wooten, A. V. Jones, Geo. S. Heyer, and Fred Hulsey.

J. C. Watson, Secretary of the Oil & Gas Association, was here Tuesday, and his last remarks were: "Do your part to give Hamlin a large and representative membership in the Association, and thereby help yourself."

Mac Bundage took the lead in soliciting members and secured a long list of names.

Representative Dean Opens Law Office In Waggoner Bldg.

Representative Travis B. Dean and his wife have returned from Austin and will make Hamlin their home.

Mr. Dean has just finished his second regular term in the Legislature and is now settling down to law practice. He formerly taught school and read law during the time and in 1936 he took the Bar examination and received his license to practice.

While in Austin he did some practice and has gained some experience in the courts.

Mr. Dean is opening his office in the Waggoner building.

J. P. Leslie and family and J. E. Leslie and family, of Lubbock, came down Sunday for a week with their mother, Mrs. S. B. Leslie and others.

TESTING ALL ELECTRIC METERS

"Pardon me, lady, while I put up a brand, spanking new electric meter."

This, or words to that effect, is what members of a meter-testing crew will be telling women in Hamlin during the next few days, according to B. M. Brundage, local manager for the West Texas Utilities Company.

A special crew in a motorized machine shop has arrived in town to test all electric meters for accuracy and possible need of repairs. The crew is under the supervision of Forest Campbell and has been making a house-to-house canvass of homes served by WTU during the last 20 months and now has tested over 30,000 meters.

The tests are made periodically in conjunction with the State Bureau of Weights and Measures and assure customers of the company that their meters are as nearly accurate as mechanically possible. The "stroboscope," being used in the Southwest for the first time, now is known to test electric meters within 25-100ths of one per cent absolute accuracy.

Testing equipment is located in a huge trailer which will be opened for inspection while here. Campbell said visitors will be welcomed after working hours when workmen will have time to explain the complicated system of tests.

"Procedure in testing meters has been greatly improved, along with advanced methods of providing customers with first class electric service," said Campbell, "and it is now possible to test as many as 80 meters a day compared to 25 or 30 a few years ago. The work here will proceed along these lines:

"A pick-up truck, loaded with new meters, will call at the home of customers. Our 'contact' man will arrange with the home-owner to exchange meters. The old one will be removed and a new one installed without serious interruption of service. The meter reading at the time of removal is photographed and filed away as a permanent record. The old meter is taken to the trailer-laboratory, tagged, and passed on to the testing department where the per cent of error, if any, is recorded. After receiving a new coat of paint, the meter is disassembled, cleaned, and new parts installed if

Bids Opened Tuesday For Construction Water Plant

Tyler Man's Bid Low With $24,961.00

Nine construction companies were present Tuesday at the Hamlin City Offices, to place bids for the construction of Hamlin's new filtration plant that will be one unit of the new water system now under construction.

Bids ranged from $24,961.00 to $32,490.00.

The Abilene Construction Company started the bids at $27,000.00. Witt & Phillips, Dallas . . . $32,490 C. S. Henning, Abilene . . . $28,750 Frank Parrot, Dallas . . . $27,490 Belfaze Const. Co. Abilene $29,490 Harry Eaton, Tyler . . . $24,961 Panhandle Const. Co.,

Lubbock . . . $25,836 J. F. Pritchard, K. City, Mo. $31,160 R. H. Folmar, Austin . . . $26,700

It will be noted that the lowest is Eaton of Tyler and (2) Panhandle Construction Company (3) R. H. Folmar of Austin. From these three the City will let the contract about next Tuesday. Any successful bidder must have the approval of the PWA offices as well as the City of Hamlin, therefore it takes several days to make necessary investigations.

The New Filtration and pumping plant will be located near the present station, and be an additional facility for handling city water. Elsewhere in this issue it will be seen that the grounds will be enclosed by a rock fence made by NYA labor and the plot sodded and parked to make a beauty spot in our city.

The present water project includes the building of the great dam across Dry California Creek (that is the governmental name) and the laying of a 10 inch cast iron pipeline from Lake Cali to the New Filtration Plant. All of this work will be completed by the end of the year.

The very life string of Hamlin depends on water and this project is the best bet we have ever had to guarantee water for Hamlin. With an ample water supply, there is no reason why Hamlin should not grow and be as good as the very best of West Texas Towns.

NO SATURDAY P. M. POST OFFICE SERVICE

This is to give notice that the Post Office is to close on Saturdays at noon, beginning with July 22nd.

We regret very much that it is necessary to start closing the Post Office at noon on Saturday. This will make it unhandy for some, especially our farmer friends. Since we are forced to comply to the letter with the forty hour per week law, as well as the eight within ten hour, and have a spread of hours from five-thirty in the morning till seven thirty at night, it just does not work out to where we can keep clerks on duty through the main business hours. We shall appreciate your co-operation, and will endeavor to better the service accordingly.

Respectfully,
Harold Bonner, Postmaster

TRAINS ARE SAFER

A passenger on a train in 1938 was fourteen times safer than a bus passenger, and thirty-two times safer than a passenger on a regularly scheduled flight of a transport airplane, according to a recent statement made by J. W. King, vice-president operations and maintenance departments, Association of American Railroads. Mr. King added that a passenger on a railroad train last year was 544 times safer than the average for all types of airplanes. The number of train accidents on American railroads in 1938, as compared with train miles, was the lowest in history.

TRYING TO FIT SQUARE PEGS INTO ROUND HOLES

American sterility of leadership, social deterioration, and our lengthened social crisis are chargeable to an "onward-and-upward" mania of American parents for their children, Dr. D. B. Harmon, consultant in mental health education, State Department of Health, Austin, charged in a conversation lecture at the North Texas State Teachers College Saturday morning.

This "American passion" of American fathers and mothers to lift their children to a higher economic level than they themselves have enjoyed, and particularly to the "white-collar" class, has caused parents to force children to conform to type and resulted in a standardized program of general education, Harmon said. General intelligence derived from such a program is a myth, he declared.

Formal education failed to produce insight and has been largely confined to giving mere accounts—ignoring the nature of individuals, their needs, and the processes going on within them that permit them to absorb and use knowledge, the speaker stated.

"Until we can produce in man an insight into the powers that science and technology have given him in controlling his environment and himself, and until we teach him to understand and use the gifts of science in advancing his own welfare and adding to his wealth and happiness, the half of the jobs we are now doing will, in the long run, be of little value," he declared.

Twisted bodies, thwarted, immature personalities—social wreckage which is the product of attempting "to fit square pegs into round holes"—are met every day in their consulting rooms by the physician, psychiatrist, and neurologist, Harmon said.

Contentment, happiness, security, and social progress can be obtained only by providing an educative process more in accord with the ends intended by nature, the speaker said.—College News Service.

President Rainey Of Univer. of Texas Says:

Three factors are operating in the field of "youth" today to make the American Youth Problem as acute as the "farm" or "labor" problem, Dr. Homer P. Rainey, University of Texas president told summer session students at Austin this week.

He listed as the three factors: (1) a shift in the population level placing the balance of power in the hands of the aged; (2) collapse of the theory that education means professional employment; (3) the changing nature of the working world.

Speaking outdoors to the University student body for the first time as its president, Dr. Rainey's address launched a series of summer forums sponsored at Austin to provide faculty-student discussion of vital American problems.

Charging that the American population had aged from an adult-youth ratio of about 9-10 in 1950 to 22 to 10 this year he called for "the wisest statesmanship at our command to avert a conflict between youth and old age."

"Here in Texas the problem is acute," he declared.

Declaring that America has only three-quarters fulfilled its century-old commitment to educate everyone, he warned of an impending breakdown of the educational ladder.

"We still have a little way to go in making good our commitment," he explained. "And we're already faced with two terrific stumbling blocks. They are the difficulty of financing higher education, and our current inability to absorb our graduates in the professions."

"That means we're going to have to re-think completely our whole program for secondary and higher education," he declared.

Turning to the changing complexion of the working world, his third "vital factor," Dr. Rainey warned that 65 per cent of today's jobs require no vocational training of any sort; 20 to 25 per cent can be filled after technical training in short term courses.

"That means, briefly, that while we're requiring more and more education in preparation for jobs, the present working world is requiring finer and finer skills—but fewer and fewer people for anything except the routine, rapid work."

Good Eggs, Plenty Of Fried Chicken

Four Jones county representatives, Deleath Grogan, Geraldine Beasley, Limie Pearl Hill, and Frances Welch were among the 50 4-H club girls from 26 Texas counties to take part in production, preservation, and preparation of food demonstrations held during the Texas A. and M. College 4-H Club Short Course.

There were 2,541 boys and girls, representatives of the more than 55,000 Texas 4-H Club members, who attended the Short Course. By surpassing the previous high mark of slightly over 2,300, set in 1938, this number marked a new record in attendance.

The Jones county girls were on a program presented by Jennie Camp, Extension Service specialist in home production planning, that had as its general theme use of the land to produce food for home use.

MAYBE YOU TOO NEED MORE SALT

"The beating Texas sun these July days is beginning to take its toll in heat prostrations, from reports reaching the Texas State Department of Health. A simple precaution to help prevent heat cramps and prostration is to add a pinch of ordinary table salt to each drink of water you take.

Laborers, mechanics, farmers and white collar workers whose work causes them to sweat profusely, are in danger of having their body salt content become deficient with resulting heat cramps or heat fog. Salt is a prominent constituent of sweat; the body loses large quantities of salt during hot days.

In industry, a method of preventing heat cramps is to take a tablet of pure salt or a mixture of salt and dextrose with each drink of water. Workmen whose duties require muscular exertion should be especially careful to add more than the usual amount of salt to what they eat and drink.

Salt deficiency may be prevented by taking salt in various ways. Where prepared tablets are not available, table salt may be used. Milk is a source of salt and will help to make up for the deficiency caused by sweating. Alcoholic drinks should be avoided.

Heat cramps are characterized by pains (cramps) in the abdominal region, headache, and in severe cases, by nausea and vomiting. The body temperature remains about normal, likewise the pulse rate. Body salt losses occur without the knowledge of the individual until there is a deficiency; then various muscles begin to cramp.

Miss Emma Sue Gunn

And Mr. Floyd Allen

Married Last Sunday

Mr. Floyd Allen of Hamlin, and Miss Emma Sue Gunn of Lubbock, were united in marriage Sunday morning at 9:00 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. G. A. Gunn, 1811 Avenue R., Lubbock.

The ceremony was read by Rev. C. E. Herford, pastor of the First Baptist church as the couple stood before a bank of gladioli. Only members of the immediate families were present. The bride wore a blue and white printed sheer ensemble with a corsage of pink split carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen left immediately following the ceremony for a brief wedding trip, and arrived in Hamlin this week where they are now at home in the Johnson Apartments.

Mrs. Allen is a graduate of Lubbock High school and a former student of Texas Technological College where she was a member of Las Vivarachas club, women's social organization.

Mr. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Allen of Lubbock, is also a graduate of Lubbock High school and attended Texas Tech. He is now manager of the Rock Service Station in Hamlin.

F. E. Cauble and son, J. C., left Thursday for several days' outing, just "fishing." F. E. is guardian at the Hamlin lakes and either fishes or sees fishing every day.

H. A. Stacy became ill while at a cafe down town, Wednesday morning and was unconscious for some time. He had been taking treatment for several weeks and he thinks maybe he drank too much very cold water that morning. He and his wife and also their daughter, Mrs. Talley of Dallas, were all confined to their beds Wednesday. Mrs. Stacy had a stroke last Thanksgiving Day and has not walked since, and Mr. Stacy has been in poor health several weeks.

REHOBAM: A MAN WHO MADE A FOOLISH CHOICE

LESSON TEXT—I Kings 12:1-5, 12-17, 20. GOLDEN TEXT—A man's pride shall bring him low.—Proverbs 29:23.

"He did evil because he prepared not his heart to seek the Lord"—this is the divine epitome of the life of Rehoboam as given in II Chronicles 12:14.

Life is full of choices, and the decisions we make determine our destiny both in this life and in the life to come. Since the great issues of our life may hinge on the simplest of choices, it is obvious that we need guidance at every point and in every moment of life. The counsel of men, the right impulses which are born of good breeding, the light of knowledge—all these may help us to make right choices. But since there is only One who has all the knowledge, who can see the end from the beginning, who has all the power to make His decisions effective, it is obviously folly of the highest degree to do without His holy guidance, especially since God is willing to give it without money and without price even to the humblest believer.

Men and women, let us not follow the foolishness of Rehoboam. Let us seek first God's kingdom and His righteousness, and then we are assured that everything else shall be added unto us (Matt. 6:33).

The picture before us is astonishingly up-to-date. People were crying for relief from tax burdens. One group of leaders counseled moderation; another group, said in effect, tax them all you can and keep on spending. The king, who in a monarchy had the final decree in his power, replied to the plea of the people with the 900 B. C. equivalent of our modern slang expression, "Oh, yeah?" and the ten tribes promptly revolted.

I. A Reasonable Request (vv. 1-5).

Governments exist for the people, not the people for the government. Political leaders seem to forget this axiom and begin to rule as though they need not listen to the reasonable pleas of the people. Tax burdens rise, regimentation of the life of the nation takes place, and sooner or later the people rise to overthrow the government. It happened in Rome, it was back of the French Revolution, it brought an uprising of the serfs of Russia, it can and will happen elsewhere if men who rule do not listen to reason.

Rehoboam made at least one wise decision—to wait three days before speaking and to seek counsel. He needed this, for having been brought up in the palace of Solomon, without proper training for his place as king, he was quite unable to make immediate answer to their request. Incidentally, we note that much of the folly of Rehoboam is chargeable to the neglect of his father to rear him properly. May that terrible thing never be said about you and me regarding our children.

II. An Unreasonable Refusal (vv. 12-15).

The picture of the two groups of advisers is a most graphic one and should afford the teacher an excellent opportunity to show young people especially, how important it is to heed the counsel of their elders. Even so youth stands today at the fork of the road. Let us in all kindness, love, and tact seek to help them choose the right way.

III. The Inevitable Revolt (vv. 16, 17, 20).

The people, long submissive and apparently servile, ultimately come to the point where they think, and when they do, dictatorial rulers tumble from their self-made thrones. Would that the people of the earth realized the power which they have and that they would use it for the glory of God. Rehoboam felt the power of the people who revolted, others have followed him, for it is still true in the world that the rulers "do evil" because "they prepare not their hearts to seek the Lord."

Rehoboam, who had awaited the arrival of this crucial hour in anticipation of taking his place as the king of the ten tribes, was ready, and was at once chosen as the leader of those who withdrew from the rule of the house of David. Rehoboam's sin brought this about, but it was also in the counsels of God (v. 15). As Alexander Maclaren expresses it, "... the historian draws back the curtain. On earth stand the insolent king and mutinous people, each driving at their ends, and neither free of sin and selfishness. A stormy sea of people, without thought of God, rages below, and above sits the Lord, working His great purpose by men's sin. That divine control does not in the least affect the freedom or the responsibility of the actors. Rehoboam's disregard of the people's terms was 'a thing brought about of the Lord,' but it was Rehoboam's sin none the less."

Hunting and Fishing News

Recommendations which, if adopted by the United States Bureau of Biological Survey, would give Texas duck hunters considerably better sport, were strongly urged upon Ira N. Gabrielson, Bureau Chief, by Will J. Tucker, Executive Secretary of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, at the recent annual meeting of the National Game and Fish Commissioners Association.

Tucker asked that Texas, which biological survey reports indicate had 100 per cent more ducks last season than the previous year, be allowed shooting to start at sunrise rather than at 7 a. m.; that earlier shooting be allowed in the northern half of the State and that the use of a few live decoys be permitted.

Those are the things Texas sportsmen have been urging ever since the biological survey set down stringent rules several years ago in an effort, which is proving successful, to save migratory waterfowl from extinction.

Final approval of the duck season and all restrictions will be made this year for the first time by Harold L. Ickes, secretary of the Department of the Interior, to which the biological survey was recently transferred. At present there are no indications of the season, its length or the limitations, Tucker said upon his return to Austin from the national meeting.

The drought in certain sections of South Texas and the Hill Country has hit game birds and animals hard and it has become necessary for the State Game Department to feed wild turkeys in a dozen Hill County counties. Seven game wardens are engaged in feeding the birds, which is vitally necessary in order to save sufficient stock for breeding purposes next season. The turkey crop this year will be well below normal in the Hill Country, Earl Sanders, Game Department Regional Game Manager at Kerrville, reports.

Triplet deer are very unusual, does usually giving birth to a pair, but Texas has at least two does which are more than doing their share in keeping the State stocked with deer. A doe on the W. H. Ramsey farm three miles from Kerrville recently had three deer for the fourth consecutive year. She is not yet five years old. The other deer which has proved very prolific is one on the Hyatt Brothers Ranch near Johnson City. She recently had her third set of triplets. She has given birth to seventeen young, including four sets of twins in the last seven years.

TRANSFER OF SCHOLASTICS

We are calling attention to the fact that July is the month for parents of children whose grades are NOT taught at home to make application for transfer. Parents should keep in mind the four following things in making application for transfer:

1. A child must be legally enumerated in the County before he can be transferred. (The time for enumeration is the month of March.)

2. If a child's grade is taught at his home school, the parent, and not the district, will be responsible for the child's tuition and transportation to the receiving school. (This is after the free time allowed by the State has expired.)

3. The new Equalization Bill provides that none other than those children whose grades are NOT taught at their home school will be allowed to ride the school bus. (This holds true even though the parent is willing to pay the child's transportation.)

4. All applications for transfer must be on file in the County Superintendent's Office by July 31.

If those desiring to transfer will hold to the above propositions, no difficulties will be experienced.

FARM TENANT CHANCE EXPIRES ON JULY 20TH

The 30-day period during which the Jones County Farm Security Administration will receive applications from farm tenants who wish to borrow money to buy their own farms expires July 20, according to Robert C. Cross, FSA supervisor.

A limited number of these loans will be made during the next fiscal year and urged that applications be made at once by those eligible for the loans. Application blanks may be had at the office, located in the Heidenheimer building, Anson.

There are now six farmers in the county who are working their own farms which they bought with FSA loans.

Loans are made repayable over a 40 year period and at three per cent interest. There are funds for only a few loans and preference is given to farmers who have adequate livestock and farming equipment.

Mr. Cross adds that he had been informed that this form of farm tenant assistance would be extended to other counties in the state in addition to the 58 Texas counties in which it is already operating. No loans will be made unless land could be bought at its reasonable value for farming purposes.

FACTS and STORIES From WASHINGTON

RELIEF APPROPRIATIONS—The $1,735,000,000 relief appropriation bill approved by the House is expected to pass the Senate shortly.

NATIONAL DEFENSE—The Senate will receive a bill that was passed by the House appropriating $292,695,547 for national defense, of which more than $222,000,000 is paid in the balance of contract authorizations. This will build up the army's air power to 5,500 planes. It also provides funds for new air bases in Alaska, Panama, Puerto Rico, and the northeastern and southeastern sections of the United States.

FARM SECURITY LOANS INCREASE SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

The Farm Security Administration announced that its nation-wide survey of the progress of rehabilitation borrowers showed that 186,619 children of school age in these low-income farm families had been enabled to attend school last year as a result of the program. These children were members of the 232,007 families covered by the survey of typical rehabilitation borrowers. The Farm Security Administration has sought to give these families, many once on relief, a new start through small loans accompanied by advice on sound farming methods. SHEEP FOR SMALL FARMER—Small-farm operators who depend upon a small flock of sheep as a source of cash income need a sheep that produces a good crop of wool as well as lambs of good market quality. To supply this need, Federal sheep specialists have developed the Southdale—a cross between the Southdown and Corriedale.

COUNTY MAPS—Detailed county maps, showing all highways and much other information, are being prepared for all counties in the United States. For most of the counties no up-to-date, detailed map has ever been available. These maps are one of the products of the highway planning survey that will have a wide public and business use in addition to use in highway planning. The surveys are being conducted by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads in cooperation with 46 State highway departments. The maps are being drawn in the respective State highway planning survey offices.

HENRY FORD—I have just read a column by H. I. Phillips, which I thought you might like. It starts off in this manner:—(Henry Ford started the Ford Motor Co 26 years ago with $2,800.)

THEN—A man demonstrates a horseless carriage and asks financial backing. He says his name is Henry Ford. Nobody knows him. He says he needs about $2,800. He gets it. The business starts.

TODAY—A man demonstrates a horseless carriage and asks financial backing. He says his name is Ford. Nobody even asks his first name after he mentions $2,800. He goes to some wealthy men, but they tell him this is no time to take chances. He goes to a banker. The banker says a horseless carriage might go all right, but the bank is putting all its money into Government bonds. He goes to a close friend, who expresses the belief a horseless carriage might have a future, but that on account of the economic setup, the unbalanced budget, the inflation scare, etc., it is no time to launch a new project. He goes to another close friend, who is quite delighted with the horseless buggy, but who "isn't putting any money into anything now on the account of the European situation." He goes to a politician. The politician says a horseless carriage looks okay on paper and might be profitable through replacing the horse and buggy; but that to replace the horse and buggy would be to throw blacksmiths, hack drivers, feed store workers, harnessmakers, etc., out of work. He finally locates a couple of capitalists who have imagination enough to see a future for the automobile, but he drives them out by predicting that "they will make millions." The thought of what they will pay in taxes scares them so much they order Mr. Ford to forget all about it. He decided to try Wall Street. The SEC demands a demonstration. The car works perfectly, but the commission cautions Mr. Ford against undue optimism, overstatement or the use of superlatives. It holds up everything while it makes a six-month inquiry to see if his right name is Henry Ford. A broker agrees to float stock. The flotation is rendered a little difficult by SEC rules that lines in the advertisements such as "may ultimately become as popular as the horse and surrey" and "likely some day to take its place as a pleasure vehicle" be deleted in the interests of honesty. Ford quits Wall street, finally gets $2,800 from a group of friends—Heaven knows how—and starts a small shop. Labor delegations warn him that for every man he hires to make an auto he must hire at least one livery stable worker. There are a series of strikes. They are referred to the NLRB. The NLRB investigates for a year and a half and files a report charging that a horseless carriage industry is unfair to whip makers. Mr. Ford appeals to Washington and explains, rather pathetically, "All I am trying to do is to make some horseless carriages." There are frenzied speeches in the Senate and House in denunciation of the new invention by orators who speak as "a friend of that noble animal, the horse." The President names a Commission "To Inquire Into the Aspects of the Horseless Carriage With a View to Possible Effects on the Economic and Social System. The committee announces it will have a report ready in three years.

reconciliation of comradeship accomplished.

Even though a great many were absent yet missed, the happy round up continued through two days and nights. Swimming, boat riding and singing were enjoyed especially by the younger people while the older ones were in reminiscing. A bountiful supply of eats was a delight to all.

On the eve of departure, the entire congregation was assembled in the auditorium of the Baptist encampment grounds and organization was completed. Under the direction of Pres. Jesse A. Drennan, Vice-Pres. Henry Drennan and Sec. Treas. Mrs. Altie Drennan, the reunion will be held next year at the same place, on the third Sunday of August and the Saturday preceding. Many of those unable to attend this time will be among those to enjoy it next year.

Those that were present were as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Drennan, Comanche, Texas, and their children; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Drennan and sons, J. S. and Howard, Sydney, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Drennan, Santa Ana, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Altie Drennan and son, Donald, Abilene, Texas; Mrs. G. W. Reed and daughter, Pearl, Sipe Springs, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Beasley and children, Jackie, Bobbie and Mary Bea, Breckenridge, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Drennan and son, Harold Duane, Sydney, Texas, and Miss Lena Drennan of Comanche.

Visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Andress and children, Joy, Vernon, and Misses Olive and Mary Stovall, all of Hamlin, Texas.

W. A. Haynes, who has been living at Aspermont as County Highway Maintenance Foreman, has been transferred to Jones County as foreman of maintenance. His headquarters are at Anson, but he will be in and out of Hamlin and all places almost any day, and all parts of the Jones county highway system has a claim on him. Six years in Stonewall county so close to Jones county makes him no stranger here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Helms announce the arrival of an 8-pot girl, born June 30. Her name Peggy Sue.

Oddie, Jr., Halmark, is spending the summer in Oklahoma, and from a letter to his mother he sees homesick but wants to remain there on a ranch and go to school this next term.
